- From September, we intend to run courses in Adobe InDesign, the rival to QuarkXPress. We are also planning evening "crash courses" in specific aspects of Scots Law. Whether the courses go ahead depends on demand, so people interested should contact Angela Austin as soon as possible.

Most of our courses are repeated throughout the year so if you can't make the dates given, put your name on the waiting list.

Training can also be delivered inhouse and tailored to requirements.
